Members Code of Conduct

MEMBERS OF GORDONVALE GOLF CLUB HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY TO:

Abide by the spirit, etiquette and rules of golf as defined in the current edition of R&A Rules of Golf.

Treat other members and club staff fairly, equally and with respect.

Follow any reasonable direction or requirement given by a committee officer or authorised member of the club.

Behave responsibly.

Not physically or verbally harass others (fight, argue, ridicule, threaten, stalk etc).

Not discriminate against any person.

Not damage, steal or misuse club property.

Not to be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.

Not carry any weapons.

Not use offensive language or suggestions (swearing, gestures etc)

Follow all club safety practices and requirements.

Refrain from behaviour that could offend or embarrass others.

Maintain the harmony and good name of the club and its members within the club and outside in the community.

Abide by and uphold our Constitution and Code of Conduct.

BREACHES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Conflict brought about by any breach or breaches of the Code of Conduct by any club member will be resolved calmly and with honesty, dignity and confidentiality.

Where and when needed, the club through the Management Committee reserves the right to make decisions and enforce fair and appropriate measures to resolve a dispute within these areas of discipline or conflict.

Any observed or reported breach or breaches of Code of Conduct by any member will be investigated, discussed and dealt with by the Management Committee by either reprimand, suspension or the revoking of club membership.
